

Common Mouse Ear

Common Mouse Ear (Cerastium Fontanum) is a low growing plant having tiny white, five petalled flowers. It has dark green leaves arranged in opposite pairs along the stem. Flowering occurs from April through to November.

It is shade tolerant in the early part of the growing season, being found on grassy habitats and flower meadows.

Sowing Time: Spring

