

Pepper Saxifrage

Pepper Saxifrage (Silaum silaus) is a member of the carrot family. It has clusters of fine, cream or yellow coloured flowers arranged in umbels 20-60mm across, flowering from June to August.

Pepper Saxifrage is a plant of damp, unimproved grassland, normally on clay soils. Common habitats include water meadows, hay meadows and lightly grazed pastures.

Sowing Time: Autumn

