

Wild Thyme

Wild Thyme (Thymus polytrichus) has clusters of purple to lilac flowers in the summer, each averaging around 5mm in diameter.

Wild Thyme thrives on free draining, neutral to alkaline soils. It is often found on sand dunes, cliffs and heaths. It is an extremely hardy species, being frost tolerant.

Sowing Time: Autumn

